Summary of Basic State and Federal Floodplain Requirements

Administration

1. A permit is required for all construction activity in a 100-year floodplain (A zones) and coastal hazard areas (V zones);
2. Local floodplain ordinances can not be less stringent than federal standards.

Residential development/substantial improvements in a zones

1. The lowest floor, including the basement, must be elevated a minimum of 1 foot above the base (100-year) flood elevation;
2. AO zones: lowest floor elevated above the highest adjacent grade – at least as high as the depth number on the map. If depth number is not on map, elevate at least 2 feet;
3. Community may prohibit fully enclosed areas below the lowest area of not less than 1 sq. inch for every square foot of enclosed area. The bottom of all openings shall be no higher than 1 foot above grade;
4. The applicant must submit an “as built” elevation certificate.

Non-residential building in a zones

1. Buildings must be elevated or floodproofed a minimum of 1 foot above the base flood elevation;
2. The applicant must submit an “as built” elevation or floodproofing certificate.

Residential and non-residential buildings in V zones

1. Fill may no be used for a structural foundation;
2. Buildings must be elevated on pilings or columns;
3. Piling or columns must be designed to resist the wind and water loads of a 100-year storm. Engineering certification is required;
4. The bottom of the lowest horizontal member of the lowest floor must be at least 1 foot above V zone elevation;
5. The space below the lowest floor must be free of all obstructions or constructed with non-supporting break-away walls.

Manufactured homes

1. Outside an existing manufactured home park or subdivision, requirements are the same as for site-built homes. Anchor toe a permanent foundation;
2. Within an existing manufactured home park or subdivision, community option: (a) elevate lowest floor at least on foot above base flood elevation or (b) elevate on reinforced concrete piers, blocks, etc., at least 36 inches above grade.

Floodway

1. Nothing can be placed within a floodway that will cause any rise in base flood elevation. Engineering analysis required.
